

Black Stork Ciconia nigra (0, 0, 1).

(Breeds from Central Iberia and east France through central Europe to Russia in small numbers into north Greece and Turkey. Breeds widely in small numbers in forested temperate regions of Russia to Siberia to Russian Far East. Most are migratory, wintering in Africa and south and south-east Asia).

2017

One: Flew east past the East Light, Rathlin Island, County Antrim, at 11.03am on 11th April, photographed (Ric Else, Hazel Watson). Charles and Croy 2019.

Black Stork Ciconia nigra Rathlin Island, 11th April 2017. Photo courtesy of Hazel Watson.