

Red-necked Phalarope Phalaropus lobatus (1, 11, 0). RV

(Breeds Arctic regions of North America and Asia, winters Ecuador, Peru and Arabian Sea).

Published records:

1891

One: Female. Shot. Loughgilly, Markethill, County Armagh, 9th November. Deane 1954.

1955

One: Lough Neagh [no county], 28th June (T.S. Agnew). Ruttledge 1956.

One: Almost in summer plumage. Whitehouse Bay, Belfast Lough, County Antrim, 5th August (W. Granleese, S. Penny). Ruttledge 1956.

1957

One: Male. Bann Estuary, Coleraine, County Londonderry, 8th July (H. Dick, Tom Ennis, S. Penny, A.J. Tree). Ruttledge 1958.

1961

Two: In summer plumage. Bann Estuary, Coleraine, County Londonderry, 9th June (H.M. Pollock). Ruttledge 1962.

1978

One: Larne Lough, Larne, County Antrim, 3rd October (P. Spence). Preston 1980.

1989

One: Juvenile. Lough Beg NNR, County Londonderry, 30th September (David Steele, Davy Hunter). NIBA 1992.

1992

One: Female. Strand Lough, Killough, County Down, 14th to 16th June. NIBA 1993.

1993

One: Adult Female. Strand Lough, Killough, County Down, 6th June (Anthony McGeehan). Irish Birds 1994.

One: Juvenile. Ellis's Gut, Lough Neagh, County Down, 7th September (Oscar Campbell). Irish Birds 1994.

1999

One: Paddy's Dub, Lough Beg NNR, County Londonderry, 25th May (Davy Hunter et al.). NIBA 2001.