

Thayer's Gull Larus glaucoides thayeri (0, 1, 0). RV

(Breeds Canadian Arctic from Banks Island to South Ellesmere and Baffin Island, South to Southampton Island, and North West Greenland. Winters on Pacific coast of North America from British Columbia south to California and New Mexico).

Historically, Thayer's Gull has been treated as a full species, a subspecies of American Herring Gull or (currently per IOC) a subspecies of Iceland Gull.

Published record:

1997

One: Juvenile / First-winter. North Foreshore Tip, Dargan Road, Belfast, County Antrim, observed on 1st and 7th March (Anthony McGeehan, Martin Garner, Willie McDowell, Dennis Weir, et al.).