

Rock Pipit Anthus petrosus (0, 1, 1). Statistics for inland records only. RI

(Breeds Western Europe. Fennoscandian form is migratory, wintering in shoreline habitats further south in Europe see below).

Published inland record:

1999

One: Mullagh, Lough Beg NNR, County Londonderry, 25th September (David Steele). NIBA 2001.

Scandinavian Rock Pipit Anthus petrosus littoralis (0, 5, 10). RV

Published records:

1996

One: St John's Point, Killough County Down, 27th March (David Steele). NIBA 1998.

One: Brigg's Rocks, Groomsport, Belfast Lough, County Down, 2nd and 3rd April NIBA 1998.

One: Ringed. Near Groomsport, County Down, 11th October. NIBA 2001.

1998

Two: Sandy Bay, Larne, County Antrim. One, 18th to 23rd March with two observed on 24th March. (David Steele et al.) NIBA 2000.

2000

Three: Briggs Rocks, Groomsport, County Down, 3rd to 22nd March (Martin Garner et al.). NIBA 2002.

2001

One: Ringfad Point, Killough, County Down, 25th February to 17th March (David Steele). NIBA 2003.

Two: Ballygally, County Antrim, 11th March one to 17th March (Davy Hunter). NIBA 2003.

2004

One: Red Bay, Waterfoot, County Antrim, 2nd March (Davy Hunter et al.). NIBA 2006.

2005

One: Greencastle Point, Greencastle, County Down, 30th March (Frank Carroll). Milne & McAdams 2009.

2006

One: Glenarm, County Antrim, 17th March (Geoff Campbell). Milne & McAdams 2009.

2007

One: Sandy Bay, Larne, County Antrim, 18th March (Davy Hunter). Milne & McAdams 2009.